

Korellis Roofing Hires New VP of Finance and Estimator/Project Manager

Hammond, Indiana – Korellis Roofing is pleased to announce the hiring of both Brian Enright and Chris Schuldt.

Brian Enright is the new Vice President of Finance. Enright's previous experience includes Powers & Sons Construction as a Controller and Greenwalt CPAs, focusing on construction clients. Enright graduated with a degree in Business Administration from Indiana State University, as well as a Masters in Accounting and Finance from Keller Graduate School of Management.

"I'm looking forward to the new challenges and growth opportunities with the position, as well as getting to know a whole new group of great people," said Enright. "My goals are to become a valuable asset to the organization and integral part of the team's success."

Enright is a Park Forest, Illinois native who now resides in Kouts. When he's not working, he enjoys activities with his family, catching up with friends on the golf course, and taking care of his home.

Chris Schuldt adds to the commercial team of estimators/project managers. After five years in the field working with both commercial and residential roofing systems, Schuldt most recently spent twelve years working for a Fort Wayne, Indiana roofing company in the low slope division.

Having lived the majority of his life in Fort Wayne, Schuldt recently relocated to Northwest Indiana. He looks forward to helping the company succeed and to completing his career with Korellis Roofing. In his free time, he enjoys golfing, riding, skiing, and ice fishing.

The hiring of Enright and Schuldt come just after Korellis Roofing's opening of a new office, storage expansion, and renovation of their existing office into an onsite training center. In the coming years, Korellis is planning an additional 45 full-time jobs.
